

DAWN BEFORE DARKNESS

a novel BY LIZ LAZARUS

“Dawn Before Darkness is a fast-paced, chilling suspense novel that had me hooked from the start. Liz Lazarus skillfully weaves the harrowing story of a woman targeted by a relentless stalker and thrust into a legal nightmare. The tension builds with every chapter, keeping you guessing and emotionally invested until the final page. A gripping and unforgettable read.”

Dawn Smith, a vet tech living in rural South Carolina, catches her boyfriend in a series of lies and abruptly ends the relationship. Rather than accepting the break-up, he begins to stalk and harass her, forcing Dawn to seek a restraining order.

Undeterred, he launches a deeply personal attack—suing for guardianship and conservatorship of Dawn’s infirm mother. In court, he manipulates the truth using evidence that he planted while the couple were still dating.

And just when Dawn thinks things can’t get any worse, she is faced with an impossible choice: rekindle the relationship or lose her mother forever.

SYNOPSIS

A psychological thriller that reveals the treachery of a ruthless stalker, the alarming failure of the legal system and the unthinkable battle a daughter must face to protect her family.
